RIVERSIDE LIVING IN THE ROYAL BOROUGH OF GREENWICH

BARRATT
— LONDON —

L I F E I N P E R F E C T F L O W

A new waterside destination for modern explorers

The Royal Borough of Greenwich has always extended a warm welcome to ambitious achievers and this exceptional new waterfront destination is full of opportunity for those who like to grab life and run with it.

Extending across 200 metres of river frontage, Enderby Wharf is a snapshot of the extraordinary architectural talent, ambition and vision that's bringing life to this part of London right now.

It sits in an enviable position to the south-west of Greenwich – an area that's transforming from the old marshes where the orchards and shipyards used to be, into a 21st-century high-tech village complete with 10,000 new homes, cafés, restaurants, proposed new pier and gallery.

Whether your enjoyment comes from relaxing on your balcony taking in some of the best views on the Thames, or from exploring the area's rich maritime history, this is a lifestyle destination that offers a very exciting future.

The local area

Situated on a winding bank of one of the world’s most famous rivers, Enderby Wharf boasts west-facing views of Canary Wharf and the city beyond. Greenwich Park is just a short stroll south, with the unmistakable backdrop of some of London’s finest architectural and historically important gems.

Running alongside Greenwich is the Thames Path, where you can head west to Tower Bridge and the Southbank and north towards the O2.

Maritime Greenwich itself is a World Heritage Site and famous for historic landmarks such as the Cutty Sark and the town centre. The area is a delight to explore and all just moments from your own doorstep.

The Development

Between past and future

Enderby Wharf is a new riverside development for Greenwich comprising 688 studios, one, two and three-bedroom apartments and penthouses. Within Shackleton House, each new home will have at least one balcony or terrace, providing generous light and space throughout.

Many homes in Shackleton House will also boast views across either Greenwich, Canary Wharf or towards the O2 Arena. A vibrant new quarter in cosmopolitan Greenwich, and close to some of London's most fascinating historical locales, Enderby Wharf embraces the very best of old and new.

Enderby Wharf 'flows' around the Grade II listed Enderby House; once the home of Samuel Enderby, a maritime entrepreneur and explorer who founded a shipping company in the 18th century. The building will remain a central focus of the development, sympathetically blending 21st-century London living with the area's fishing and maritime legacy. It has been proposed as a new cultural and social space, which will bring together the residents of Greenwich.

Light, space and designer touches

Boasting natural light from the floor-to-ceiling windows and outdoor space, the modern, open-plan interiors at Enderby Wharf are very special indeed.

Kitchens from Nolte are equipped with a full range of modern AEG appliances, making cooking and entertaining a pleasure.

Contemporary bathrooms and en suites, complete with sleek fixtures from Duravit in white and chrome, are finished with attractive tiled flooring.

Bedrooms are stylish and comfortable, and come with ample storage. Residents who like to work from home can easily adapt the space into a working office.

New beginnings

At Enderby Wharf, both families and individuals are well catered for with an assortment of planned on-site facilities, designed around the demands of London's modern lifestyle.

From a crèche and a 24-hour concierge service, to underground parking and private landscaped gardens, Enderby Wharf is a complete destination.

The development offers extensive leisure facilities including a private residents' fitness suite, play areas and a bar and restaurant in refurbished Enderby House.

Popular places to explore

With so much to see and do in the Royal Borough of Greenwich and the surrounding areas, you will be spoilt for choice at Enderby Wharf.

Just a short walk away is historic Greenwich Market, offering a range of independent and boutique shops sitting alongside the expansive open spaces of the Royal Park. The area is also home to the world-renowned National Maritime Museum and Greenwich University.

With excellent transport links and the Thames Path you are within easy reach of Canary Wharf, The O2 and all of the exciting and diverse attractions London has to offer.

Site plan

The development features eight buildings, which have been designed to convey the horizontal movement of an estuary. Blocks use subtle diagonal shifts to create 'undulations' and generate a 'rippling effect'.

Ranging from three to 14 storeys, the residential buildings that sit on the riverside of the development are orientated to allow maximum sunlight into the new landscaped courtyards and play areas that sit between them. Enderby Wharf also includes the redevelopment of the Grade II listed Enderby House into a new social hub.

The Consumer Code

The Consumer Code for Home Builders (“the Code”), which came into effect in April 2010, applies to all home builders registered with the UK’s main new Home Warranty Bodies: NHBC, Premier Guarantee and LABC Warranty.

The Code gives protection and rights to purchasers of new homes. It requires all new home buyers to be treated fairly and ensure they are fully informed about their purchase before and after they sign the contract.

The aim of the Code is for all new home buyers to:

- be treated fairly
- know what levels of service to expect
- be given reliable information about their purchase and their consumer rights before and after they move in
- know how to access speedy, low-cost dispute resolution arrangements to deal with complaints about breaches of the Code.

The Code reinforces best practice among home builders to encourage a consistently high level of information and customer service. It builds on successful efforts already made by the industry to improve consumer satisfaction in recent years.

The Code covers every stage of the home-buying purchase – pre-contract, exchange of contract and during occupation.

As a 5 star housebuilder, we are committed to the Consumer Code for Home Builders. For more information on the Consumer Code for Home Builders, please visit <http://www.consumercode.co.uk/>
